

Where to put your graphics and how to prepare data?

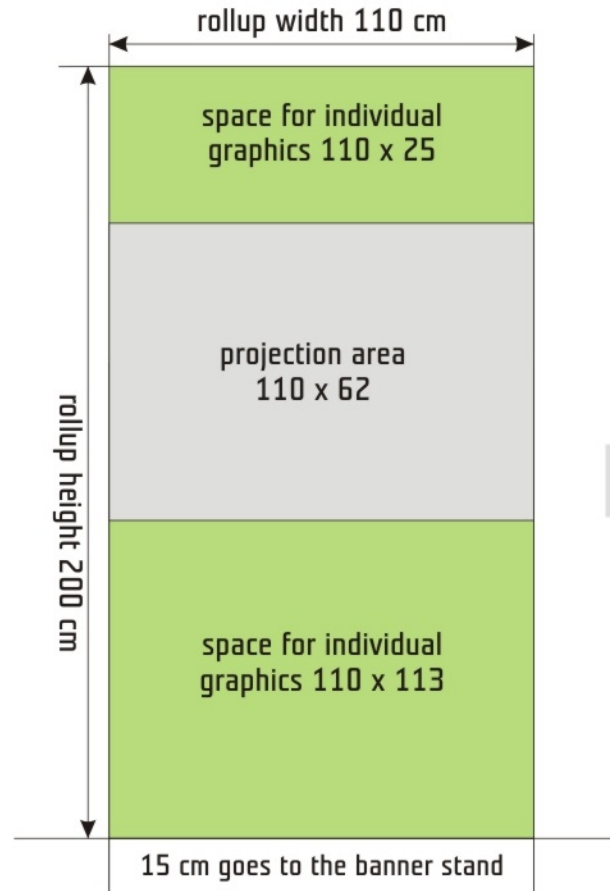

1

Option 1: Individual graphics is placed under the projection area which is placed on the top of the banner.

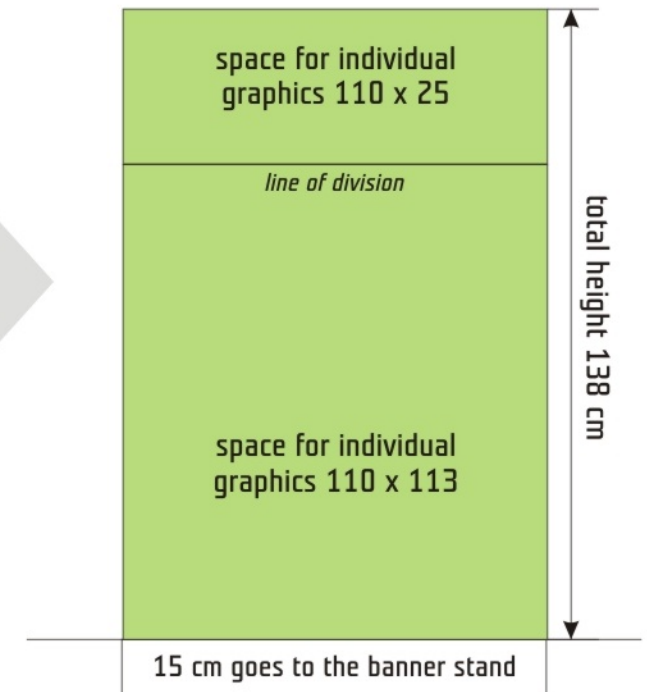

2

Option 2: There are two spaces for individual graphics placed above and under the projection area.

How to prepare your data? (option 2 only)

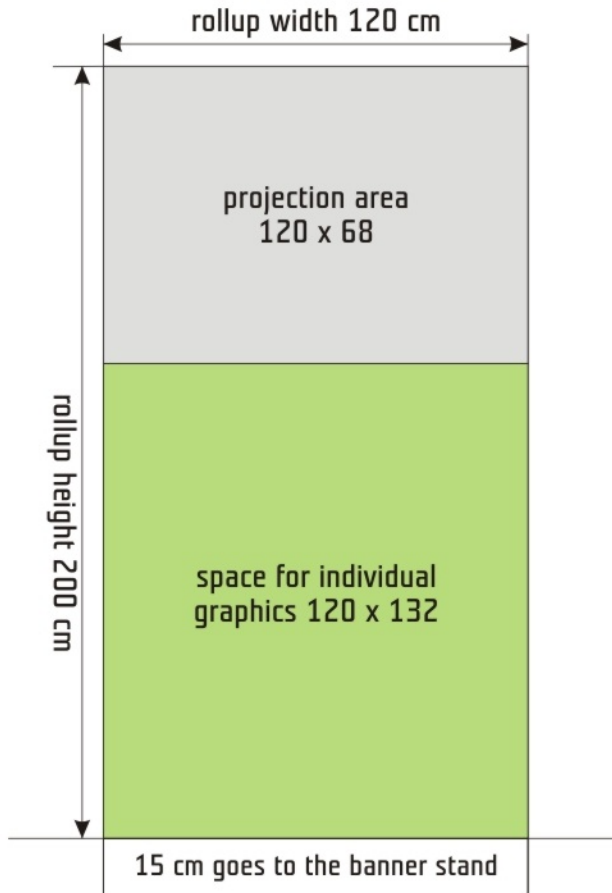

You can set the height of two parts for individual graphics. Total height must be 138 cm. Prepare the data as one piece of banner and set the division line.

Where to put your graphics and how to prepare data?

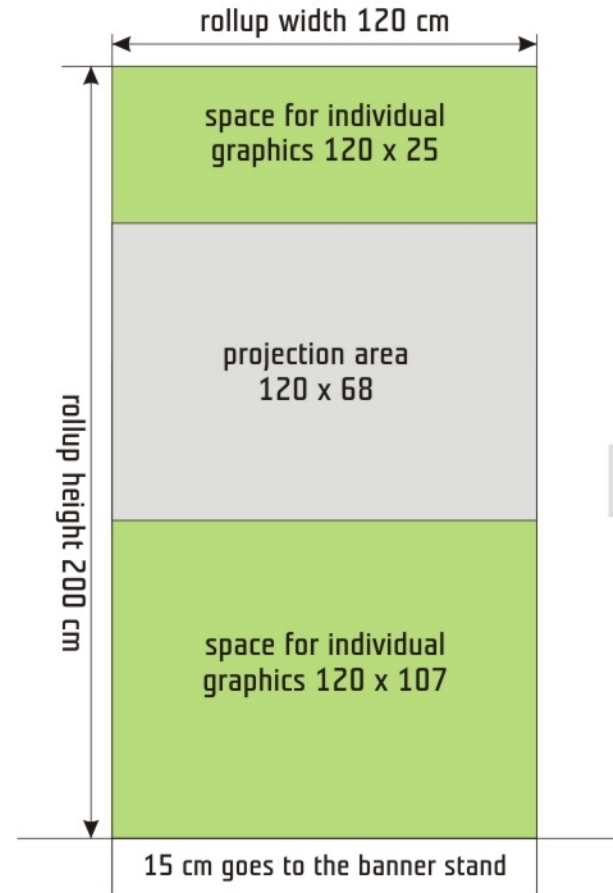

1

Option 1: Individual graphics is placed under the projection area which is placed on the top of the banner.

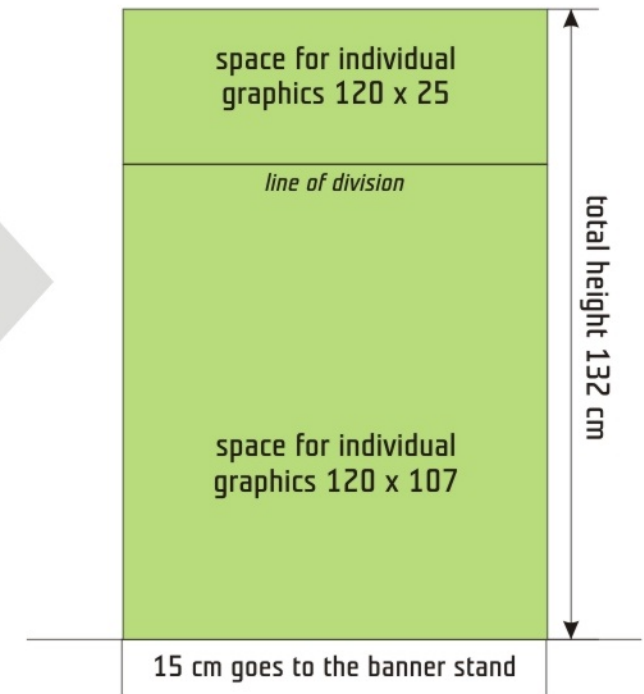

2

Option 2: There are two spaces for individual graphics placed above and under the projection area.

How to prepare your data? (option 2 only)

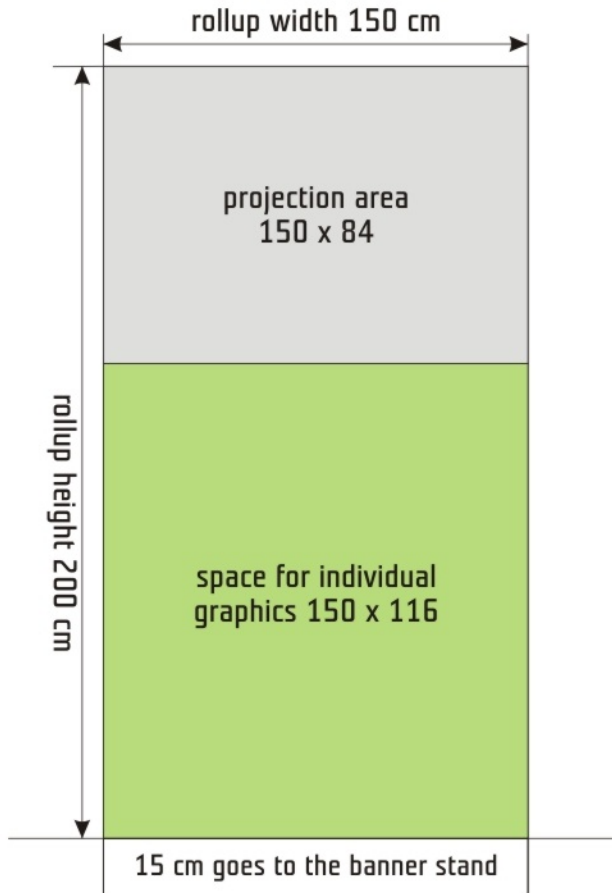

You can set the height of two parts for individual graphics. Total height must be 132 cm. Prepare the data as one piece of banner and set the division line.

Where to put your graphics and how to prepare data?

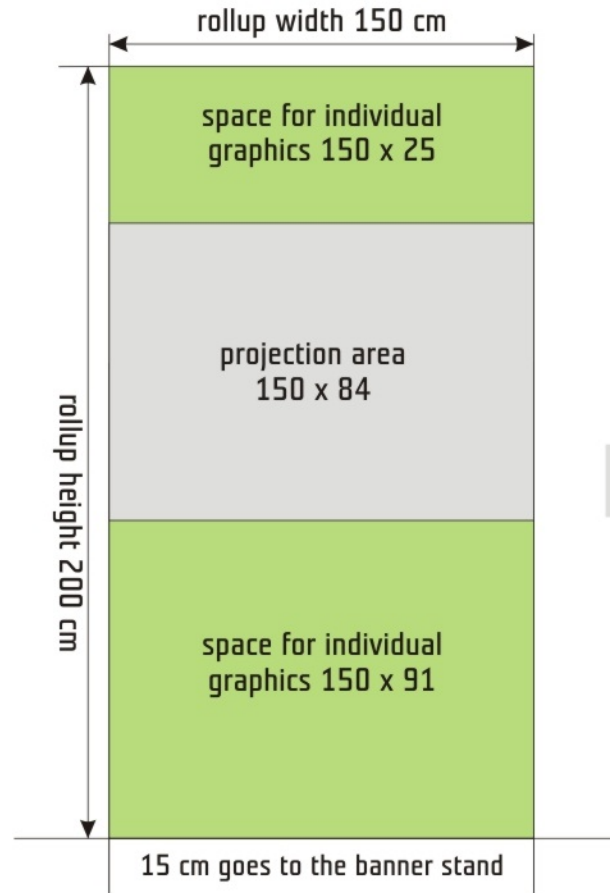

1

Option 1: Individual graphics is placed under the projection area which is placed on the top of the banner.

2

Option 2: There are two spaces for individual graphics placed above and under the projection area.

How to prepare your data? (option 2 only)

You can set the height of two parts for individual graphics. Total height must be 116 cm. Prepare the data as one piece of banner and set the division line.

